To the Honorable Judge Crotty,

RE: 08 CV 01841

I am writing this letter requesting an additional 30 days to acquire a lawyer. I am a small business and I am having problems gathering the funds to get a lawyer to represent me. I ask that you please take my situation into consideration and grant me the additional time requested. Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Cordially,
Basem Jad
Owner/Manager

Re: Sint, LLC and Sleepy's, LLC v. Sleepy Bedding & Furniture, Corp.
08-cv-1841 (PAC)
Opposition of Defendant's April 15, 2008 Request for Extension of Time

Dear Judge Crotty:

Plaintiffs respectfully oppose Defendant's April 15, 2008 request for an additional 30 days to retain a lawyer in the above-captioned matter. Defendant has had plenty of time to secure a lawyer, both before and after Your Honor's March 17, 2008 Order. Indeed, prior to filing its "Motion to Dismiss" on March 8, 2008, Defendant (through Mr. Jad) contacted counsel for Plaintiffs on March 5 to request an extension of time to answer on the grounds that its "regular" lawyer did not practice in federal court and additional time was needed to secure a new lawyer. Counsel for Plaintiffs refused to consent to an extension due to the unreasonable delay already incurred and the prejudice to Plaintiffs that would result from such an extension. Specifically, Defendant was notified of its unauthorized use of the Plaintiffs' SLEEPY's Mark two times prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and Defendant chose to ignore Plaintiffs' demands to cease its unauthorized use.

This lawsuit was filed on February 26, 2008, and Defendant should not be permitted to further delay the proceedings. Plaintiffs respectfully oppose Defendant's request for a further extension of time because any further delay in reaching the merits of this lawsuit severely prejudices the Plaintiffs because it allows Defendant to continue doing business under Plaintiffs' Mark.

Sincerely,

Carrie A. Hanlon
Attorney for Plaintiffs
